MOMENTS LIVE!

"There are those moments in life... We know when you live, no matter how you live, and all those other moments... moments that you don't see... the joy of being your passion and seeing the people... the people who are the most busy... helping their country, and for that matter, helping the world."

The video has been featuring road safety in the world's most remote countries and high mountain peaks to end the current road safety crisis. We encourage you to share this message and gain publicity for the video of the moments in life that inspire you to believe in the importance of safe roads everywhere.
