

UN ROAD SAFETY FUND LAUNCHES 2022 ANNUAL REPORT

Special Edition at ITF Summit 2023

LOCAL ACTIONS, GLOBAL IMPACTS

The UN Road Safety Fund was back at the ITF Summit in 2023 to launch its 2022 Annual Report: Local Actions, Global Impacts, at a hybrid Media Event alongside longstanding partners of the Fund from the public and private sector, civil society and UN champions.

See the Event Updates here

Read the Press Release here

2022 REPORT HIGHLIGHTS

OUR DONORS

Case stories in the Report feature results from the Fund's 36 projects in 46 countries and how the Fund is delivering support – with thanks to 26 corporate and government donors. These solutions – led by 14 UN partner organisations, and with five civil society partner organisations now on board – span the 5 pillars of the Global Plan of Action for Road Safety.

Download the Report here

Watch the Report trailer here

PARTNER VOICES FROM THE EVENT

At the Event, Germany, Michelin, IRF, and Argentina – together with the UNECE and the UN Secretary-General's Special Envoy for Road Safety – showcased the Report highlights and the joint action leading to investments in safe, sustainable and inclusive transport systems.

View the Event Voices here

Watch the Video Message here

The Fund joined other leading voices in global road safety – iRAP, IDB, the Netherlands and bp – to discuss how financing transport infrastructure can help deliver equity and efficiency.

Watch the Session here

The Fund shares why the Report was launched at the 2023 Summit with ITF's Media Team.

Watch the interview here

Ahead of the event, the Fund and iRAP co-authored a blog for OECD Development Matters.

Read the article here

